EPISCOPAL LAYMEN AND CLERGY MEET.

Sixty-Second Annual Convention of the Diocese of Missouri Begins Its Work.

Thirty-six ministers and seventeen lay nen responded to the roll call when the ixty-second annual convention of the Diocess of Missouri was formally opened at Christ Church Cathedral yesterday morn-

A brief husiness session was held in th morning, after communion services, and the annual sermon by the Reverend Allen K. Smith of the Cathedral. John R. Triplett was re-elected secretary and W. B. Combe was reappointed assistant secretary. In the afternoon Bishop Daniel S. Tuttle selivered his annual address. He paid special tribute to the memory of his brother Bishops who died in the last year. Attention was also called to the death of certain members of the diocese. The list included the Reverend William Watts, who was eleven years rector of Columbia, and the Reverend George W. Cobb. Others named were R. B. Deane of St. Louis; A. W. Gov rell of Canton; Thomas Beard of Ironton.

The Bishop stated that in the last year there were 559 confirmations; that the Church of the Redeemer and St. Peter's Church had been consecrated free of debt; that 414442 had been contributed to domestic and foreign missions being $1.11.95 considered the question of the appointment of an archdeacon, or general missionary, for the diocese. Said the Bishop: "I think the general sentiment is in favor of procuring such a helper for the missionary work of the diocese. There is dissatisfaction that the church does not extend itself and move more rapidly and more vigorously in the unoccupied part of the city and country. It is thought that the presence and work of an archdeacon might mend this fault."

The convention will be in session all the of the week.

WOMEN OFFER REMONSTRANCE

Delegation From North End Opjects to Reconstruction Work.

jects to Reconstruction Work.

North Side women at yesterday's public hearing by the Board of Public Improvements, remonstrated against street reconstruction, while their masculine neighbors were demanding the improvements. President Phillips and the other members of the board requested the women to tender their remonstrance in writing.

It was the first time women ever objected and the first time a strong delegation ever appeared to insist upon improvements. The paring lasted forty-five minutes, in which time fifteen petitions were heard, J. R. Kinealy and J. H. Gundlach, representing the North Side Improvement Association, asked the board to approve all the petitions for street improvements in North St. Louis. Members of the board expressed pleasure over the action of property-owners favoring public improvements.

The petitions were referred to the Street Committee. Ordinances will be drafted immediately, and will be approved and transmitted to the Municipal Assembly. They refer to the following streets: St. Louis avenue from Broadway to Fifteenth street, Twentieth street from Mallincknoot street to Grand avenue, Ninth street from Cass avenue from Carr street to Cass avenue, Garrison avenue from Laclede avenue, Jefferson avenue from Laclede avenue, from St. Louis avenue to Natural Bridge road; Thereasa avenue to Spruce street, Cherokee street from Lemp avenue from Laclede avenue to Chuteau avenue, Gravols avenue from Clighteenth street to Arsenal street, and Eighteenth street from Park avenue from Bighteenth street from Park avenue from Bighteenth street from Park avenue from B

Referring to St. Luke's Hospital, the Bishop said that $100.000 had been given it by its friends. The Harriet M. Tuttle Memorial Fund of the hospital had now reached the sum of $1,714.

The "Bishop's purse" was said to have received $2,978.56. The Woman's Association had ralsed and distributed $4,988.80, of which $3,878.75 was in cash. The Sunday schools of the diocese gave $1,569.81. Every school gave something. The Bishop asked that the pledges this year be at least $5,155.

The Bishop called attention to the fact that the two preceding conventions had considered the question of the appointment of an archdeacon, or general missionary work of the diocese. There is dissatisfaction that the church does not extend itself and move more rapidly and more vigorously in the unoccupied part of the city and country. HOTEL COMPANY ASSIGNS.

Trustee Is Appointed for St. James Assets.

The St. James Hotel Company, which was acorporated three years ago, Thomas P. Miller president and manager, yesterday made an assignment, naming Smith P. Galt as trustee for the creditors and $4,500 as the assets. When he was seen by a Republic reporter last night Mr. Miller said: "The St. James Hotel Company has been compelled to make an assignment as the only way to settle with its creditors in an honorable manner. The truth of this financial trouble is that the hotel, up to last winter, has made no money since the Galt as trustee for the creditors and $4,500 inancial trouble is that the hotel, up to last winter, has made no money since the removal of the old Union Depot, seven years ago. We owed C. E. Snalding, the owner of the building, about $30,000 rent.

"The hotel badly needed repairs, and at my own expense, or that of the hotel company, I put about $8,000 of needed repairs in the hotel, and put it in first-class shape last fall. Some of the creditors threatened suit, and I got an extension of time until the list of May, this year, I tried to borrow some money from my bank to tide over these troubles, but could not get it, because of the amount due Mr. Spalding for rent. In consequence, the hotel was sold on May 20 to George and E. D. Cummings, late of the Clifton House, in Chicago, for $10,000. It was owing to the improvements I put into the hotel last fall that it was in condition to bring a buyer. What they pay is to Mr. Spalding for fixtures."

Chicago, Ill., May 28 .- The wheat market was dull, with no particular feature.

Corn was dull, but steady. Receipts were large. sion-house demand.

Had not the Northwest entered the market as a buyer of Sept, dry weather and prospects of a continuation of the same in spring-wheat country, the session to-day would have lowered all former records for dullness and narrowness. As it was, the aggregate business was dull, and but little interest was shown. There was a London cable which showed a loss of 3d on the deferred, while the near-by months were unchanged. A Russian cable helped to steady prices, saying that prospect for the wheat crop is less favorable, and that rain is badly needed in the Czar's country. This report caused some buying of both July and Sept. by a few of the leading commission-houses. Locally, the sentiment was bullish, but the market was without a leader on that side, and the bear element did not care the Northwest was a buyer. There was a strong flax market and some improvement was shown. May ranged le higher on short covering. New crop features were le to 2c higher. In nominal prices. Sellers were entirely absent and it was this which made the market firmer. Arrivals were fair, but the seed did not come on the cash market. It must be going to store for delivery. The grading was good. Receipts were 21 cars and 17 cars graded. Northwestern receipts were small; Minneapolis got 5 cars and Duluth 6. Local stock last week increased 2.063 bu. No. 1 cash sold at 1.72; No. 1 Northwestern sold at 11.72; rejected 51.65671.70; May 11.73; Sept. nominally $1.33 bid, $1.34 sellers; Oct. $1.31 bid.

Timothy and Clover Seeds. The speculative market was stronger, and there appeared to be a few Sept. buying orders. Sellers were scarce, with the country not offering. Prices were bid up 7½c before any was obtained and then only a small quantity was bought. Cash market was lifeless. Sept. sold at $3.35; cash seed, poor to choice, $2.963.40; fair to good. $1.1563.25; tallings, $262.50; contract, $3.356.340.

3.10(3.20); tailings, to the clover state of the clover market. Values were nominally the same as they have been. The market was quotable at $200 for poor to choice; tailings. $1.5063.50; fair to good, $7.5068.50; contract, $9.50 nominally.

There was no feature to the market. Inquiry for milting grades was very limited. A few buyers come on the market, and, by taking a car or two absorb the supply. Screenings remain scarce. To-day's receipts were 14 cars. There were 9,000 bu. taken out. Screenings, 37633'4c; low grade, 406'55; common. 4645c; fair to good, 496'55c. Further delivery No. 2 nominally 55c for Sept., and 55c for Oct.
